

Vermont Natural Resources Board
Act 250 Violation Report

The Vermont Natural Resources Board enforces violations of Act 250, Vermont's statewide land use law (10 V.S.A. Ch. 151). It is important to provide the Board with all of the relevant facts, so that we can respond in the most appropriate manner to minimize any environmental harm, and ensure that any enforcement action is timely and appropriate.

If you wish to report a possible violation of Act 250, please complete this form or use it as a guide to call the Board's Enforcement Officer at (802) 585-4046 or email the completed electronic form to michaela.stickney@vermont.gov. Alternatively, mail a paper copy to:

Attn: Michaela Stickney, Enforcement & Compliance Officer
Natural Resources Board
10 Baldwin Street
Montpelier, VT 05633-3201

IF YOU WISH TO REMAIN ANONYMOUS, DO NOT GIVE US YOUR NAME.

Your name _____ Date _____

Your phone number _____ Best time to call (specify AM or PM) _____

Name of violator(s) (if known):

Date(s) of violation:

Location of violation (street address or directions and name of town) and exact name of property owner of legal record, or operator of the facility (please provide as much detail as possible):

Description of alleged violation and associated activity (please provide as much detail as possible, including the Act 250 permit number, if known, and any relevant dates or time frames):

Names, phone numbers and addresses of other witnesses to the violation (if known and willing to be identified):

Other information (e.g., vehicle descriptions, license plate numbers, etc.):

Thank you.